SCOPE OF MINISTRY

Systemic Ministry Sustainability: STRATEGY
(Purpose - Process - Productivity)

Generational Integration: STRUCTURE
(Values - Vision - Victory)

Proactive Participation: STRENGTH
(Creativity - Collaboration - Commitment)

MANDATE
(WHY?)

To develop the IDENTITY of Christ, the CHARACTER of Christ, and the VISION of Christ and his Kingdom in every Youth and Young Adult of the Apostolic Church of God.

IDENTITY – How we Translate Christ to this Generation, so that they will BECOME like Christ. - Message

CHARACTER – How we Transfer Christ to this Generation, so that they will BEHAVE like Christ. - Methods

VISION – How we facilitate Transformation in this Generation, so that they will BELIEVE and LIVE in the Future that Christ has prepared for them. - Manifestation
MISSION
(WHAT?)

To fulfill the Mandate by facilitating Spiritual Discipleship and Leadership Development (D² INITIATIVE) for our Youth and Young Adults through 5 imperatives:

PRAYER & WORSHIP to God

BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE of God

BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE of Self

HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS with Others

Maturity in fulfilling Purpose and Destiny
Ministry shouldn’t be homogenized, but it should be Harmonious... We must move beyond segregated silos to integrated involvement. – Dr. Byron Brazier

Areas of ministry will look diverse, but share a unity in values and vision.

The ministry model for Y2M is not a hierarchal model, where ideas are disseminated from the top down, but rather we engage through a “flat” model of collaborative exchange and interdependent relationships, which allows every area to add value to the whole.
Leadership Engagement

Christ-centered. (RESPONSE)  People-driven. (INTERVENTION)  Need-based. (PREVENTION)

2018 Spiritual Focus Guide

Theme – “The Power to BE...”

“Identity for Destiny”

As the children of God we are called to be different (1 Peter 2:9), be in the world but not of it (John 17:15-16), be imitators of Jesus Christ (Ephesians 5:1-2) and be reflectors of His glory (2 Corinthians 3:17-18). Y2M is dedicated to growing young people in righteousness and preparing them to be a bold witness in their world. God has created us to be His representatives in the earth and we can do that when our identity, character and vision are lived out through who He is in us. They will know they can ‘BE’ and do what is outlined because God has given them everything they need to do it through the Holy Spirit (2 Peter 1:3). Through the spiritual guide provided we can have an integrated approach to what is delivered wherever youth show up in Y2M.

This guide is an invitation to assist young people with reflecting their love for God in the identified key areas. Invite them to embrace God’s way of doing things and live out what they believe. Each quarter has an overall focus with each month having its own emphasis. Each month’s emphasis offers a spiritual truth that should be woven into the ministry plan of your intended focus for the young people you serve. Through that weaving it into what is delivered, young people will begin to discover the way that who they are in Christ is and can be integrated into their everyday lives in an intentional way. This integration will help them begin to make choices that are made out of love for God and what He calls them to be while countering the influences of the world around them.

Throughout 2018, Y2M will be committed to collective engagement. This collective engagement will impact the breadth of Youth and Young Adult Ministry as we help youth embrace their “Identity for Destiny”. Pray about how your area of ministry integrates the “Word” for that month into your ministry activities so together, we are experiencing shared emphasis. Please encourage your ministry teams to use the #Hashtag for each Quarter on their social media platforms. Finally to increase our Y2M communal experience, we will utilize our Monthly Periscope Prayer Connection to place Spiritual emphasis on the “WORD” for each Month.

Notes for Engagement
In this age of hurried lifestyles, social media, and the fast-paced world of technology, we can be guilty of compromising the beauty and power of human interaction and relationships. The need for relationship is at the very core of our being, because our Creator is the God of relationship. HE gave man purpose but also met and walked with him in the Garden in the "cool of the day." The All-Sufficient One, the El Shaddai, the Creator God, Elohim, desires relationship with us, His creation, so much that He came down to live among us and destroy the sin barrier between us and Him. He is Jehovah Shammah, the God who is always "here" - ever present, ever faithful, ever loving. Jesus came that we might have abundant life, and that life can only be found in Him. The quality of our relationships is a major part of this abundant life because it is borne out of our relationship with Him, the True Vine. Our relationships will grow as we love God and each other more freely and boldly.

Our youth will nurture their relationship with the Lord with a daily prayer of surrender, “Lord, show me how to love You today. Show me how to love my neighbor as myself. Make these opportunities clear to me.” They will continue to be guided in the Word of God that reveals more of our Father and His immeasurable love for us. As they grow in their knowledge of Him, our young people will grow in their love for Him. Encourage them to practice putting distractions aside by taking some one-on-one time a few minutes a day with the Lord. Lastly, our youth will be encouraged to check on friends and loved ones throughout the month, in whatever manner they choose (e.g. text messages, notes, etc.) and really learn how much we need each other.
March
RESPONSIBILITY
Titus 3: 1-7
1Peter 2:11

For it is by grace that God saved us and paid the ultimate price in full for our sins. He did that because He loves us so much. Because of what He has done for us, we have the responsibility to live our lives reflecting His glory. It is both God’s will and our duty. The world will see the difference as we live a Christ-like life. The differences we reflect as Christians are to be manifested in the way we speak, act, think and relate to others. It will show up in our choices—whether it is the manner in which we do something, the music we listen to, the media we consume or how modest we are in our dress. Our responsibility to reflect Christ in all we do irrespective of the influences around us is a characteristic of a follower of Jesus Christ.

While they are influenced by the cultural diatribe of shifting blame and responsibility onto others, our youth will learn to stand up for what is right and take responsibility when they are wrong. They will be the light of the world. During this month, leverage opportunities with them to have discussions about their convictions and ways in which they are taking responsibility to make living for Christ a lifestyle that is reflected in their behaviors. Be intentional in encouraging youth to continue to shine in areas that you have witnessed their “light”. Have guided discussions about ways to assist in their development of areas they may struggle with taking responsibility. Identify a method of accountability in that particular area for the youth under your tutelage.

NOTES FOR ENGAGEMENT
2nd Quarter - #BeBOLD Psalm 27:1-6

April

| WORSHIP |
| --- | --- |
| Isaiah 29:13 |
| John 4:23-24 |
| Romans 12:1-2 |
| Psalm 100 |

Real worship is having an over abundance of bona-fide love for God that is wrapped in complete surrender to His Will. The focus of real worship is not the music or the religious rituals nor the benefits one may receive, but it is about:
- Loving Him
- Honoring Him
- Getting to know Him through His Word
- Obeying Him daily

A life of worship happens as He becomes our way of life – in spirit and in truth demonstrated – not just our talk but with our hearts as well. When He becomes our way of life, a transformation occurs. We turn from the ways of the world and embrace His changing how we think, act and live. This leads to understanding of what God’s will is for each of us.

The focus of real worship is not the music, nor the religious rituals nor what one can get out of it. It is all about Him – Jesus. True worship is God-centered. Jesus tells us that true worshipers will worship God in spirit and truth. When we worship in spirit and truth we are doing it from the heart. Help youth discover what true worship is. Remind them that worship is more than a Sunday morning activity but a 24/7 lifestyle embraced by those that love God. It leaks over into all areas of their lives including school, work, play, etc. Have youth share how their actions at school or home can demonstrate real worship of our Lord and Savior? Discuss how every day actions can be done as acts of worship so that they become 2nd nature in their lives and demonstrating their love and honor of the Father with gladness and joy.

WITNESS
Romans 1:16
Matthew 9:37-38
John 15:16

God has created us to know Him and make Him known to others. The World needs Jesus and we are the way God has decided to make Him known-through us. He has given all of us the responsibility of sharing the gospel, the good news of what Christ has done, with others. In order to share Him, we must stay connected to Him through His Word and prayer. Some may never come to the church or respond to an invitation for some ‘Christian thing’. We can however live in a way that encourages others to want to know Him. As we live for Him, we are prayerful for opportunities to share Jesus with them. God is at work in us and His Work reveals His power to us and those around us. Sharing what Christ has done in us can have the power to draw others to Him.

Our field is who is around us – our family and friends. When we know and care about them, we can readily share what God is doing in our lives and has done through Jesus Christ. Help youth discover how sharing Jesus with those who need Him is a demonstration of their love for God and those they share with. Remind them they don’t need a big platform but they have a BIG GOD who is at work in them. Help youth think of people they encounter who God may want to use what they’ve been through – their story to bring Him glory. Discuss who they know needs to know Christ and join them in earnestly praying for them and a way to share Jesus Christ with them. Talk about the frequent ways sharing Christ comes up in our everyday lives and give opportunities for youth to think through ways they might share with someone by sharing what Christ has done and is doing in them.

NOTES FOR ENGAGEMENT
June
WARFARE
2 Corinthians 10:4
Philippians 4:13
James 4:7

Although Christians are in the world (the created work of God), as a believer and born again Christian we must handle challenging or adverse situations in a Christ-like manner. Rather than fighting the way the world does (those that are created by God but don’t know Him) by using our mouth to hurt others and using words that are not becoming of a Christian, we use it to bless and encourage others. Instead of fighting physically, we fight spiritually by using prayer as a shield against attacks and The Word of God as a weapon to defeat the enemy. We learn to search the scripture and apply it to our lives daily. We must ask God to assist us in every situation especially when they are challenging.

We recognize there is evil in the world so we must equip youth with strategies to combat it. We will help them recognize when it is at work around them and how to respond in a godly manner while not being overtaken by it. This month, help youth consider ways they can invite God’s help into their battles. Help them understand that through the Holy Spirit; they have the power to resist the devil. Discuss the spiritual weapons they have been given to fight the good fight of faith, stand against the evil one and accomplish whatever God wants them to do. Help youth examine scriptures and know how important it is to look to God’s Word during challenging situations as well as a way to war against the enemy.

<td>Prayer is the means by which we communicate with God. It is not only a pipeline directly to God; it is the way in which we also hear from God. In prayer we talk to Him but He also talks to us and directs us when we are attentive to His voice. We pray in obedience to God's Word, in faith that He hears us and expectation that He will bless us with His power to do His will. When we pray, we become co-laborers with God to be active in bringing His kingdom to earth. God uses our prayers to accomplish His work on earth. In order for our prayers to be effective, our position has to be a sincere heart and persistence in faith. While that is the posture of the heart, there are many physically postures we can have in prayer – kneeling, standing, sitting, or laying prostrate whether silent, audible or even singing. Whatever the posture, we pray in agreement with who God is, His character and His will. We pray in the authority given in the name of Jesus. We must believe God and that He not only hears us but rewards our diligent pursuit of Him.</td>

PURPOSE
Isaiah 43:7
Proverbs 3:5-6
Proverbs 4:7
Psalm 139:14

God has created us all to do something for Him. The thing He created us for will generally bring us joy, be a blessing to others and a delight to God. When we understand the reason for our existence, we can better fulfill our purpose of becoming who God created us to be. We were created to glorify God. He desires to reveal Himself in us through relationship with us. When we know this truth in our hearts, the decisions we make and the choices we choose will lead us to make pleasing God our first priority. When we understand our purpose, we will align the activities of our lives with what brings God glory, meets the need of others and gives us joy. As the intersection of those things meet, we will bring honor to Him and fulfill our purpose. Discovery of what brings fulfillment to our hearts helps us lean into what we were created to do. Finding our purpose helps us more clearly understand how God wants to use our lives.

While the world promotes self as the priority of living, whether through advertisement, social media or other avenues, we will present the truth to our youth that they are loved and purposed by God for God. This truth will help them grow a healthy identity of who they are and have a stronger understanding of the false perceptions presented by the world. This month, remind them of how fearfully and wonderfully they are made for God’s purpose. Allow opportunities for youth to consider and reflect on times they may have:
- put self before God (and how that moved them from what God intended for them)
- wanted to please peers more than please God; (and how that can lead to becoming less of who you are created to be)
- made choices and decisions that contradicted who they know God has created them to be

This exploration of how our everyday decisions impact us living out our purpose will help youth understand the necessity of looking to The Lord for guidance.

September PRIORITIES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Proverbs 16:3</th>
<th>Matthew 6:33</th>
<th>Mark 8:36</th>
</tr>
</thead>

Our God is a jealous God. He desires that we put nothing before Him that will block, delay or hinder our relationship with Him. Yet, He grants us the privilege to live our lives and experience different outcomes in our walk with Him. Jesus had one priority in His earthly journey and that was to do the will of His Father in Heaven. He never lost sight of His mission, His assignment, His calling, or His love for us, which propelled Him to the Cross. Our respect, relationship, responsibilities, worship, and purpose are all guided by our priorities. As we seek to please Him we grow to realize we must make Him a priority. Making Him a priority in our lives will help guide the rest of our priorities for our life.

This digital age is full of distractions. Between tablets, cell phones, and social media, it can quickly cause flaws in the attention spans of our youth. This month, help youth will learn how to prioritize their relationship the Lord. Help them develop a plan for prayer, devotion, and Bible study first, then areas of their life that require them to prioritize properly, school, homework, career, sports. Ultimately all they do is for the glory of God. Help them identify those areas where they are struggling to prioritize properly so they can align all their priorities to a single goal of choosing The Lord first. Consider ways, your sphere of ministry can develop and implement a check in to assist them in this area at establishing and sticking to their priorities for life at the beginning of the school and ministry year.

NOTES FOR ENGAGEMENT
Selflessness occurs when we are focused on someone else. It arrests the feeling of being obsessed with our own needs – what’s going on with me and mine. Our faith encourages us to help those that are weak instead of focusing on ourselves. Selflessness helps us get beyond ‘what’s in it for me’ and focus on the goal of caring for the needs of others more than any personal benefit. Giving our help and time helps us develop empathy (compassion towards others) as we are able to see ourselves in their shoes. Paul is a good example of one that was constantly looking to the needs and good of others. Out of genuine love, he served them and sacrificed for them. He was blessed by generously caring for others. Selflessness allows us to move from passing happiness to joy because we experience delighting in what God is doing on behalf of others rather than dwelling on what’s happening in our personal lives. Even more, we have the example of Jesus who is the perfect embodiment of selflessness. Selflessness is a declaration that we are putting God first by doing what He did—considering others over Himself.

In 2013, the Oxford Dictionary named ‘selfie’ the word of the year. The word ‘selfie’ has made its way into our everyday lives including our dictionaries, conversations and interactions. We can hardly attend an activity or event with more than 10 people where a selfie is not taken. A recent survey indicates that almost half the adults in the U.S. have taken a selfie. Young people even more so! We are a culture absorbed with ourselves. Snapchat and Instagram parades our preoccupation with self and can keep us from seeing and responding to the needs of others around us. The picture or selfie is not the issue, the leaning towards self-centeredness that comes from our own sin nature is! Encourage youth to take note of moments of self-focus and intentionally think of and respond to someone around them that needs assistance or support. Consider a ministry project that cares for or meets the need of a group in the church that allows youth to give of themselves in a tangible way.
Serving is an intentional action. No one serves by accident. Service involves helping others, volunteering our talents, and even sacrificing our time. Service is also a commitment. As Christians, we serve God by serving our neighbors, our church, our parents, our schools and even our country. We are enabled and empowered to serve through the power of the Holy Spirit. Our service is a visible demonstration of our commitment to Jesus Christ. When we serve others, we are serving Christ (Matt 25:40).

As Christ followers we are called to love and serve others. One of the highest forms of good we can do in our community, church, school, and family is to serve them. Help youth think through the various ways in which they are already serving. Challenge their misconceptions of Christian service. Discuss the radical idea of giving up yourself can lead to finding yourself. Highlight Jesus as our ultimate example of service. Help youth think about opportunities to serve as a way of demonstrating a thankful heart as Thanksgiving approaches.
December

SACRIFICE

Romans 12:1-2

1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Philippians 1:20

As we close out the year, we remember Christ came not in royal celebration and glorious anticipation but into a hostile environment already looking to destroy Him. He left a heavenly home to come to an earthly dwelling that needed a Savior. He set aside the grandeur of His kingdom and sacrificed glory to come for us. In humility, He endured life here so that we would have life in Him and one day join Him in the life He has prepared for us there. Because of all Christ has done for us, we are urged to give ourselves to Him as a living sacrifice as an act of worship. Only when we give ourselves to God in worship can we truly give ourselves sacrificially to others. Everything starts with God. Every preceding monthly focus emanates from our act of worship. The intentional act of our presenting ourselves to God allows Him to live through us. He lives through the activity of our bodies—every aspect including what our hands, feet, eyes, mouth do. And yet, it’s not just presenting our bodies but our hearts and minds because what belongs to Him, He can use in the way He wants.

Sacrifice involves persisting even when we don’t feel like it. We may be tempted to give up because letting go of what we want to do what God wants may seem difficult when everything around us blares, ‘me, me, me’. This is a great time to encourage personal examination of ways youth can offer themselves first, to God and then to others in acts of service. Tie in the quarterly focus of #BeTHANKFUL to help them see how selflessness, service and sacrifice are related. Consider tangible ways youth can find expression in turning attention towards the needs of others as the year draws to a close.

A collaborative Y2M wide activity incorporating those elements can be developed to provide both a giving opportunity and a celebration of Y2M learning to BE all God is calling them to Be as we head into 2019.
